OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Rectangular, wood printing block with the image of a young woman. The portrait is a closeup of her face and neck. In the bottom left hand corner there is a small letter artist's signature: alpha, pi, iota all in lower case. The detail of her face are delicate lines while shadow is given to her hair by thick, close lines.

ORIGIN

Donated by John Damianos. The printing block was used in a linotype printing machine. Linotype presses allowed for the casting of entire lines to be printed at a time. Linotype printing was eventually succeeded by lithograph printing and computer typesetting during the 1960's and 1970's. This printing block was used by the Chicago-based, Greek Art Printing Company that was owned and operated by Aristotle Damianos. The Greek Art Printing Company was responsible for the printing of a wide range of materials, including wedding invitations, invoices, flyers, programs, letterhead, etc., for Greek businesses, organizations, institutions, and individuals in the Chicago area, and elsewhere.
