

OBJECT ID	2007.1.6.4
OBJECT NAME	Spoon, Ice Cream
MATERIAL	Pewter
OBJECT ENTITIES	BRAND, PIX (created by) SANGALIS, THEADORE (owned by) Sangalis, Theadore (is related to) Sangalis, Diana (is related to)
ACCESS POINTS	eating utensil ice cream Spoon

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

SMALL ICE CREAM SPOON. tarnished. on the underside of the handle is a brand imprinted that says "PIX EXCEL BRAND".

ORIGIN

Ice cream was thought to be invented in the Persian Empire around 450 BC. Ice was kept in cold storages until summer called yahkchals and then flavored. Through the centuries the recipe has evolved from culture to culture. It is commonly eaten as a dessert and the ornate serving dishes may have been used when it was served during special occasions.

CITATION

Spoon, Ice Cream, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 05/01/24.