

OBJECT ID	2007.1.6.6
OBJECT NAME	Spoon, Ice Cream
DATE CREATED	1900s
MATERIAL	Pewter
OBJECT ENTITIES	ACORN-COOPER, (created by) SANGALIS, THEADORE (owned by) Sangalis, Diana (is related to) Sangalis, Theadore (is related to)
ACCESS POINTS	eating utensil ice cream Spoon

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

LARGE ICE CREAM SPOON. Tarnished. beneath the handle is a brand imprinted that reads "ACORN-COOPER"

ORIGIN

Ice cream is thought to be invented in the Persian empire around 450 BC. snow was storred inside yahkchals and then flavored to be eaten during the hot summer. Since then the recipe evolved though centuries a cultures, It is eaten mainly as a dessert in Greek and American cultures and serving dishes such as these may have been used for special occassions.

CITATION

Spoon, Ice Cream, 1900s, National Hellenic Museum, https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/. Accessed 03/28/24.