OBJECT DESCRIPTION

bronze trophy with wooden base. the base is oval shaped with a square platform in the center. On top of the platform is a bowl-shaped fixture of bronze-like metal. It sits atop a column like stem and the bowl itself has two handles. One on either side; rounded and with a wreath at the bottom of each. the top of the bowl fixture is a platform with a sports player wearing shorts, a tank top and sneakers with one arm reaching in the air, holding a ball (though what sort of ball it is is indiscernable). just beneath the platform he stands on are the 5 Olympic rings. On the wooden base, there is a plaque that reads:

"1978 N.H.I.B.T. TOURNEY

COLLEGE DIV.-SPORTSMANSHIP

WILLIAM GOUZAS AWARD

ANDREW FASSEAS"

ORIGIN

The mission of the AHEPA Family is to promote Hellenism, Education, Philanthropy, Civic Responsibility, and Family and Individual Excellence.

Hellenism

An important component of AHEPA's mission is to create an awareness of the principles of Hellenism to society. These principles include a commitment to humanity, freedom, and democracy. The preservation and promotion of these ideals is where AHEPA has, and always will be, deeply committed.

AHEPA hosted "Olympiads" in major cities for several decades during the mid to late 20th century. The olympics were open to all athletes of Greek decent from through out the country.
