

OBJECT ID	1994.98.4
OBJECT NAME	Teapot
OBJECT COLLECTION	Mary Semeges Collection (is part of)
MATERIAL	Porcelain
ACCESS POINTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>blue</li> <li>gold</li> <li>Speckeled</li> <li>spout</li> <li>T&amp;E for Materials</li> <li>Teapot</li> <li>White</li> </ul>

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Body of teapot is made up of a crackled, multicolored design (blue, green, and magenta). Handle and spout are gold but worn down with use. There is no lid. The opening at the top has a rim of gold. The interior of the pot is white and the area where the spout is made up of perforated holes that would filter the water as it was being poured through the spout.

ORIGIN

Part of a set which includes the sugar bowl from 1994.98.1.A and the set of cups from 1994.98.3. Maker of set is unknown.

CITATION

Teapot, Mary Semeges Collection, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 04/24/24.