

OBJECT ID	1994.28.2
OBJECT NAME	Tray
OBJECT ENTITIES	Gatsis, Mary (is related to)
ACCESS POINTS	Platters Trays

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Wooden serving tray with a handwoven cane center. The pattern of the cane includes three central diamonds with circles in the center surrounded by different patterned borders out to the edges. The center circle and the four corner squares are painted a different color than the rest of the natural wood for emphasis. The design is covered with glass (the glass has a curved crack down the center) and the wood frame is primed and polished with small handles on either end.
