

OBJECT ID	F2014.146
OBJECT NAME	Doll
MATERIAL	Plastic
ACCESS POINTS	blue brown orange paint Plastic Spinstress Toy vail Yellow

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Female doll with long black hair braided into pigtails, wrapped in a silk like vail, held down with three flat beads. The vail is light blue and has a trim of yellow and orange string. Her jacket is white with brown and burnt orange patterning all over it. She has a gold belt with pink and green stripes. Her skirt is brown and pleating. About two inches above the hem there are four strip of colored pattern alternating till the end of the skirt. Two of the patterns are a strip of green, yellow, and orange sawn close together. The other strips are a squared geometric pattern with light blue, yellow and orange. The strip do not touch each other and have a small space of brown in between them. The hem of the skirt is edged with lace. Her shoes are black and have little puff balls on them. Her arms are made of plastic and in her right arm she is hold a spool of "wool" that is connected to another spool connected to her chest. The uppe portion of her arms are made of wire and her legs and body are made of hollow plastic. Her face is painted with blue eyes, long lashed, a curved brow, rec lips and flush cheeks.

CITATION

Doll, National Hellenic Museum, https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/. Accessed 11/10/26.