

OBJECT ID	F2014.147
OBJECT NAME	Doll
MEDIUM	Paint
MATERIAL	Lace; Plastic
ACCESS POINTS	gold Greek Key Plastic Purple red Toy

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Female doll with brown hair twisted up into a bun and covered into a lace vail with light blue lining. She has a red dress with long trim on the neckline and sleeves. Lace coming from the sleeves. On the chest she has five coins and she is also wearing a green top under the dress. She has a purple apron with a centered design of roses on a black background. Next to the roses are yellow cirlces, also on a black background. There are also two wazy strips of gold embroidered and a gold lining at the base. The skirt has another strip of yellow circles on a black background, about three and a half inches from the base, and has fringes coming off of it. At the hem of the dress there is more fringe at the base as well as a wavy gold embroiderment. She has a yellow underdress with a black and gold Greek Key at the very bottom. Her arms are made of plastic, but wire on the upper portion. The rest of her body is made of a think plastic overed in a cotton like material. He face is covered by the vail, but still has painted blue eyes, long lashes and red lips.

CITATION

Doll, National Hellenic Museum, https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/. Accessed 11/10/26.