OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A photoalbum with a darker brown paisley pattern, with gilded Greek key pattern forming an inner border, and a solid gold line outside it, and the words "Scrap Book" on the cover. The book is bound with a brown cord that goes through the front and back covers through black plastic rings. Taped to the center is a crest for the Hellenic Golf Club of Chicago. The crest has a medal/shield design with the words "Hellenic Club of Chicago" on the red borders, in the center there is a golf club and flag crossed behind a golf ball, and in front is a scroll banner that reads "sportsmanship" on a field of light blue. On top of the main shield, there is a rectangle, half light blue, half off-white, with the text "Founded 1937". Inside the scrapbook there are a variety of papers, letters, photographs, and other print material all relating to the golf club including a member card, letter regarding the very first founding meeting on June 20, 1937
