OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Postcard with a photograph of a very ornate-looking religious shrine, possibly taken from the shrine of The Holy Church of Our Lady of Tinos, built on the site where the Icon of the Annunciation was found. The image is in grayscale and has a portrait orientation. At the bottom of the photo is a caption written in Greek and French. On the back of the postcard, there is the French for the postcard, "carte postale," a space for a stamp, and below that are four lines to write out an address and then a blank space separated by a line for writing a message.

ORIGIN

Possibly a photo of the shrine of The Holy Church of Our Lady of Tinos built on the site where the Icon of the Annunciation was found.
