Small, blue and white pin. On the top of the pin, curving in a downward shape is a small white banner with the words "Greek War Relief" written in blue on it. On the center bottom of the pin, slightly curving upwards, also written in blue are the words "I Helped". In the very center there is very small bordered square with an image of a woman who has her head covered with a veil and holding a baby wrapped in a blanket in the bottom left corner. In the bottom right corner there is an image of an ancient building, too small to determine which. Above the building is a shirtless male statue. Still within the square, at the very top are the words "Help Greece Now" written in white. The background of the pin is vertical blue and white stripes.
