OBJECT DESCRIPTION

This left, closed-toe shoe has a silver/grey color to it. The inside of the shoe is a lighter shade of silver. The bottom of the sole is dark brown. It is made of leather. The shoe has a 2-inch heel. There is a strap with a small tan button. There is a brown scuff mark on the outer left side.

The leather is wrinkled from use on the toe and on the sides. The inside sole is discolored and is coming off slightly. There are three rust marks on the heel of the inside hole. There are scuff marks on the bottom sole. There are slight tears and scuff marks on the heel. On the bottom of the heel, there are five dots.

This shoe was used for a wedding.

ORIGIN

This wedding shoe was used for the marriage of Konstantina Pazouras to Christ Eliopoulos, the parents of the donor, in 1929 in Kapsia, Arcadia, Greece. The couple came to Chicago in early 1930.
