

OBJECT ID	2015.14.9
OBJECT NAME	Plaque
OBJECT COLLECTION	Helias Doundoulakis Collection (is part of)
DATE CREATED	November 19, 2007
OBJECT ENTITIES	Doundoulakis, Helias (is related to)
RELATED ITEMS	Portrait, 2021.24.1
ACCESS POINTS	Oss World War II

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A small wood and metal shield-shaped honorary plaque. Polished wood base with silvery metal on top. On a golden piece at the top is engraved in Greek, "General Staff of National Defense". On another golden piece in the center is a military logo labeled in Greek. At the bottom is a brass metal piece with, "Presented by General Dimitrios Grapsas Chief, Hellenic National Defense General Staff Washington D.C. Nov. 19th '07" printed in black.

ORIGIN

On the back is a label that explains, "This plaque is presented in recognition of the contribution of the American and Greek-American OSS/OGs Veterans, who fought alongside the Greek Resistance during the German occupation in 1944, as well as in recognition of the individuals who contributed, in their own way, in making the story of these courageous soldiers, known to the public. Washington D.C., 19th Nov. '07".

CITATION

Plaque, November 19, 2007, Helias Doundoulakis Collection, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 05/04/24.