

OBJECT ID	2013.5.140
OBJECT NAME	Album, Postcard
MATERIAL	Paper

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A cardstock envelope full of black and white postcards of Athenian monuments. The cover has in dark blue ink a meander pattern around the border, the word Athens written in greek in large letters, then beneath it "Athens" in English, French, German, and Italian. Beneath that in the same size letters is "12 Views" written in Greek, English, French, German, and Italian. At the bottom is a picture of an ionian column with "Delta" written on it. The back of the envelope seals with tab and slit and has the Delta logo on the tab.

Inside are 12 postcards of: The acropolis, The temple of Nike Apteros, the Propylaea, The Parthenon, The Caryatides, The Erechtheion, the Odeon of Herodes Atticus, The theatre of Bacchus, Bas-reliefs at the Bacchus Theatre, The Arch of Hadrian, The Temple of Olympian Jupiter, The Theseion.

CITATION

Album, Postcard, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 04/19/24.