

OBJECT ID	F2015.82
OBJECT NAME	Jug
MATERIAL	Wood
ACCESS POINTS	bottle brown Jug liquid Vase Vessel Water

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Brown wood jug. It has a flattened circular shape with a pointed spout and four legs to stand. The wood is slightly worn with scratches and discoloration. For example, parts of the wood are a dark brown/black color. There are small white dots on the top of both sides of the jug--could be from possible paint splatters.

On one side of the jug, the central circular piece is cracked along its edge. The spout is also chipped.

ORIGIN

Could have been used as a jug or a canteen to hold liquid around the house or on travels.
