OBJECT DESCRIPTION

These blue and white Diadora shorts was worn by Ioannis "Giannis" Kalitzakis while playing for the Greek national soccer team during the group stage of the 1994 World Cup. Diadora is an Italian company that produces sportswear for cycling, running, rugby, tennis, and soccer. The shorts are white with a blue stripe running down each side. The stripes are formed of two thick lines that merge towards the bottom of the shorts.

ORIGIN

These shorts were found with the jersey of Giannis Kalitzakis from the 1994 World Cup. There are pictures of players wearing the same type of shorts and jersey in the 1994 Qualifying Round for the World Cup. They were made by the same company that produced the jersey, as well. Diadora is an Italian sportswear manufacturing company, including soccer.
