OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Greek cartoon [Hitler and Mussolini] from The Sphinx magazine. The caption reads: {Text in Greek} [After the Drowning; Why are you pulling my hair my good man. A drowning man tries to pull himself out by his own hair. Why not pull on your own. Did the Tsetis in Albania leave a single hair on my head?].

ORIGIN

The Sphinx: English Illustrated Weekly, published and distributed in Cairo from 1892 until 1947, was an English language magazine whose intended audience included British expatriates living in Egypt and elite English speaking Egyptians. Besides reporting news of interest to the English-speaking community, it offered accounts of social and sporting events in Egypt. Illustrated with photographs and other images, The Sphinx was also notable for its coverage catering to automobile enthusiasts in Egypt.
