OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Photograph of a parade float going by as crowds in the background stand in front of buildings. The float has three tiers on it. The first tier, which is also the base, is lightly-colored and has a sign across the longest side that reads "Pan Hellenic Students Association of Chicago" in non-alternating blue and red colors. On top of this base, to the rear of the float, are the two additional layers of the float with a person wearing golden clothing and holding a golden spear standing on top of it. To the front of float are four people. One is sitting on a stool wearing a long, blue garment of clothing, while standing around this person are three people in red, white, and purple garments of clothing, some of whom are also carrying scrolls.

ORIGIN

Photograph owned by the Franzese family. Connected to other photographs from the same Greek parade in Chicago.
