OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A photograph of the exterior of a building with people walking about. The structure of the building is a two-story circular-shaped building with glass windows on the second floor, a balcony, and a white panned fence located to the right side of the building. The building's roof consists of a board of mini triangular that overhangs the building's roof and a central pitch top. On the left-hand side of the photograph are three individuals in the foreground standing next to a multi-colored lamppost. The person to the right is seen wearing a yellow dress and a white sweater. In the middle of the group is a figure wearing a white colored dress and jacket, and the person on the far right can be seen wearing a green dress. The individual walking to the right is seen wearing a black suit and a hat, with a person walking next to them holding a white object. The other individual to the left is wearing a black suit, hat, and tan-colored briefcase. In the left-hand-side background are three Asasin-inspired buildings. To the right-hand foreground are four people, with three of the individuals seen standing and chatting. The other individual is seen in a brown suit walking.

ORIGIN

Photograph owned by the Franzese family and connected to other pictures from the same collection labeled as New York World's Fair 1964. 1965, 5491.
