

OBJECT ID	2023.22.1
OBJECT NAME	Medal
DATE CREATED	1913
DONOR	Dean Costopoulos
EVENT	First Balkan War, 1912-1913
OBJECT ENTITIES	Costopoulos, Dean (collected by) Costopoulos, Harry (owned by)
RELATED ITEMS	Medal, 2023.22.2 Photograph, 2023.22.3 Photograph, 2023.22.4 Photograph, 2023.22.5 Photograph, 2023.22.6 Photograph, 2023.22.7
ACCESS POINTS	Balkan Peninsula--History--War of 1912-1913 Medals Medals, Greek

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A bronze-colored medal with a blue, white, and red ribbon.

The front of the medal reads:

LEVOS-CHIOS

With Thanks from King and Country

1912-1913

The back of the medal reads:

Macedonian Continental Archipelago

ORIGIN

This medal was bestowed upon Harry Costopoulos for his service to the Greek military during the First Balkan War, which took place between October 1912 and May 1913. During the war, the Kingdoms of Greece, Bulgaria, Serbia, and Montenegro together fought against the Ottoman Empire.

CITATION

Medal, 1913, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 05/21/24.
