OBJECT DESCRIPTION

An aged newspaper clipping of an article typed with black ink. The article is written by Mrs. Marie Economidy and is titled "Beauties of Greece Are Told By a Visiting Galvestonian." The article recounts the Mrs. Economidy travel to Greece and is broken down into three sections: Everybody on strike, Acropolis Unchanged, and Villagers Visited. Located on the left hand-side is a pencil line. There are tears located at the bottom left corner and top of the newspaper, as well as a piece of clear tape covering a portion of the section Acropolis Unchanged. In the middle of the article between the sections Acropolis Unchanged and Villagers Visited is another piece of clear tape.
