OBJECT DESCRIPTION

An old newspaper clipping of an article typed with black ink, which has been collaged onto a page with other clippings to create a book. The article is titled "To Speak in Costumes." Below the title is a black and white photograph showcasing a full-body image of an individual with the text "Mara Economidy" printed below. The image showcases an individual dressed in an elaborate costume consisting of a vest, high-collared blouse, skirt and a head piece. The individual in the image appears to be holding an rectangular object in their left hand.
