A newspaper clipping of an article typed with black ink and written in English. The article has been collaged onto a manila page with other clippings to create a book. Below the article title is a black and white photograph of an individual, assumedly Mrs. Maria Economidy, dressed in a Greek costume and seated on an assumed pedestal with a chair behind them. Underneath the image is the article's text, which is broken into eight paragraphs. Five of the paragraphs, stemming from the bottom to the center, have tape going across the edge and center. Along the left edges of the article are folding and tear damage. To the far right, bottom corner is a small article college onto the page.
