OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A newspaper clipping of an article typed with black ink and written in English. The article has been collaged onto a manila page with other clippings to create a book. The article is rather large, shaped like an L, and consists of 13 paragraphs that are broken into three sections titled "Exhibits Shows Them Here," "Natives' Costumes on Display," and "Photographs Rival Paintings." At the top of the article, written in English, is the article's title, which is illegible due to tearing. The legible words are "Greek," "Show," and "Institute." In the center of the article, left-edge, are pieces of tape that appear to be holding part of the article to its torn or ripped sections. Due to these damages, part of the text is difficult to read.
