

OBJECT ID	OH1.024 (Anthony, Anne)
OBJECT NAME	Oral History
LANGUAGE	English
OBJECT COLLECTION	National Hellenic Museum Oral History Collection (is part of)
DATE CREATED	June 28, 2013
INTERVIEWER	Anthony, Katherine
INTERVIEWEE	Anthony, Anne
ACCESS POINTS	Confectioners Dressmakers Penobscot River (Me.) Queen Mary (ship) Restaurants--Maine S.S. America (ship) Saints Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church (Cardiff, California) Secretaries St. George Greek Orthodox Church (Bangor, Maine) St. Spyridon Greek Orthodox Church (San Diego, California) St. Stephen's Greek Orthodox Cathedral (Paris, France)

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

In this video oral history interview, Anne Anthony describes growing up as a child of Greek immigrant parents in Bangor, Maine. She speaks about her schooling and her family's home in Bangor and summer home at Hermon Pond. Anthony details her trip to Paris, France, to visit her brother where she met her future husband, and her marriage in Paris. She speaks about her life in Paris after marriage, her return to Bangor, and eventual move to Southern California.

---

CITATION

Oral History interview with Anthony, Anne, June 28, 2013, National Hellenic Museum Oral History Collection, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 04/17/21.

---