OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A copy of a black and white formal portrait of a man, woman, and baby. The man and woman are both seated, the woman is holding the baby on her lap. The woman is dressed in a light-colored dress, the baby is in all white, and the man is in a dark-colored suit, with a bowtie, and a hat.

ORIGIN

Formal portrait of Constantine and Anna (Peter Chronis) Papageorge with son George seated in lap.

Anna Georgetson's mother was Nica J. Georgetson. She was the wife of the late John M. Georgetson, formerly of Port Allegany. Mrs. Georgetson was born June 13, 1913, in Goritsa, Sparta, Greece. She was the daughter of the late Gus and Anna Chronis Papageorge. She came to the United States in 1937 after her marriage to John in Greece and settled in Port Allegany. The extended family ran the Sugar Bowl, later known as Georgetson's Restaurant and wholesale ice cream business.
