OBJECT DESCRIPTION

topped with a gazebo-like canopy, takes up most of the photo. It is adorned with a magnificently large spray of fresh flowers and a cross. The priest is standing in front and to the right giving full view of the Epitaphios. A tall square wooden post topped with a cross is seen in the very front on the far right of the photograph.
