OBJECT NAME Photograph

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

This is a black and white photograph of The Acropolis from the Philorappos Hill in Athens. The image is a copy of the original picture and is placed within a wooden frame.

ORIGIN

This is a photograph of The Acropolis circa 1900 from Philorappos Hill in Athens. It was bought by Christina Kafkis on her way to Chicago to marry Dan Lagos circa 1912. It was donated by Nicholas Kafkis.

Philopappos Hill is Southwest of the Acropolis. It was once known as the Hill of The Muses, but now gets its name from the monument which stands on it. The monument is in honor of Gaius Julius Antiochus Philopappus, who was a popular Roman Consul of Athens.
