OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Black and white photograph of three men standing on a bridge or platform behind a wooden railing. The man on the left is tall and thin, clean-shaven, is wearing a helmet and is looking off to his left at the man in the middle. The man in the middle is about 6-8 inches shorter, a little older and sports a full mustache. He is standing with both hands planted on the rail and looking straight into the camera. The last man on the right is about the same height as the man in the middle, a little thinner and younger. He is in full military uniform, but is wearing a regular military side cap instead of the helmet. He is facing forward and is looking straight into the camera with both hands resting on the rail.
