

OBJECT ID	1993.41.4B
OBJECT NAME	Photograph
OBJECT ENTITIES	DeMets, Thula (is related to)
RELATED ITEMS	           Photograph, 1993.41.1            Postcard, 1993.41.2            Postcard, 1993.41.3            Photograph, 1993.41.4A            Photograph, 1993.41.4B            Photograph, 1993.41.4C            Photograph, 1993.41.4D            Photograph, 1993.41.4E            Photograph, 1993.41.4F            Photograph, 1993.41.4G            Photograph, 1993.41.5            Photograph, 1993.41.6            Photograph, 1993.41.7            Photograph, 1993.41.8            Photograph, 1993.41.9            Photograph, 1993.41.10            Photograph, 1993.41.11            Photograph, 1993.41.12            Photograph, 1993.41.13            Photograph, 1993.41.14
ACCESS POINTS	House blessings
OBJECT DESCRIPTION	A blessing ceremony.
ORIGIN

There are three kinds of Blessing of Waters ceremonies carried out by a Greek Orthodox priest. The first is the blessing of waters at baptism.

Next comes the greater blessing of waters known as Megas Agiasmos which is conducted at the Feast of the Theophany known as Epiphany.

And next is the Lesser Blessing of Waters known as Mikros Agiasmos which is performed throughout the year by the Greek Orthodox priest in a Church, at homes, schools, businesses, tavernas, restaurants or even in olive groves or to bless fishing boats.

---

CITATION

Photograph, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 04/20/24.

---