

OBJECT ID	2003.58.5.2
OBJECT NAME	Photograph
OBJECT COLLECTION	Pagedas Family Collection (is part of)
DATE CREATED	June 24, 1956
EVENT	Consecration of St. Andrew's Greek Orthodox Church
MEDIUM	Photo Paper

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A black-and-white photographic print. A group of men are standing in front of the doors of a brick building. The three men in front are wearing priest vestments, while the rest are wearing suits and ties. A group of well-dressed men and women are facing this group of men, with their backs to the camera. There is a small table behind the middle priest that appears to have some books on it.

Writing on the back of the photo says:

St. Andrews Greek Orthodox Church

6-24-56

South Bend, Indiana

ORIGIN

This photograph is from the consecration of St. Andrew's in South Bend, Indiana, in 1956. At the time, the church was located on Michigan Avenue, however the congregation is now located on Ironwood Road. The identities of the people in the photo are unknown.

CITATION

Photograph, June 24, 1956, Pagedas Family Collection, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 04/25/24.