

| | |
|------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| OBJECT ID | 2010.27.3 |
| OBJECT NAME | Photograph |
| DATE CREATED | 1940s |
| MEDIUM | Photographic reproduction |
| OBJECT ENTITIES | Rose Dalianis, Young girl (is related to) |
| ACCESS POINTS | Rose Dalianis, Young girl, pose, car, outside |

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A young girl posing in front of a black car outside. The girl is wearing a white dress and socks, and black shows. She has dark hair. She has her right leg up and bent, and her right arm held behind her head. She is leaning against the car. Her left arm is on her hip.

ORIGIN

Rose Dalianis gave a recipe to a man named Brad, who was the publisher of the Greektown Chicago book/cookbook in 2005. When the book was completed, Brad forwarded pictures from the people who donated recipes to the National Hellenic Museum. Rose then agreed to donating the photos.

Rose's parents were both Greek, but were born in Turkey. This photograph is of Rose as a young girl.

CITATION

Photograph, 1940s, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 05/05/26.