OBJECT DESCRIPTION

ORIGIN

Mary Psychogios's parents, George and Dina Apostolpoulos, were both Mediterranean immigrants. George Apostolpoulos immigrated to the US from Chirathes in 1917 while Dina Apostolpoulos came in 1920 from St. Basil, Tripoli. Mary had three older brothers and two younger sisters and the family grew up in the house depicted in the largest image. Mary's father George worked as a fruit and vegetable grocer on 5th Avenue in Chicago (The Maywood Fruit and Vegetable Market).
