

| | |
|---|---|
| OBJECT ID | 2013.6.13 |
| OBJECT NAME | Paper, Photographic |
| OBJECT COLLECTION | The Calas Family Photograph Collection (is part of) |
| EVENT | A handshake |
| MEDIUM | Photo Paper |
| OBJECT ENTITIES | Calas, Andrew (is related to) |
| ACCESS POINTS | photographPhotographic PrintPost Cardsuits |

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A black and white photo of Andrew Calas shaking hands with another man. Both men are dressed very formally in suits and ties. Andrew is looking at the man and the other man is looking over Andrews right shoulder. Andrew has his hand on the other mans arm. They are both very straight faced. They are in frront of a plain background.

ORIGIN

These photographs were donated by Candi, Kurt and Craig Calas. The man in the left of the picture is Andrew Calas. The reason for the handshake is unknown but perhaps having to do with Andrew Calas's military history. The date is most likely the early 1920's. The photo was possibly taken in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

CITATION

Paper, Photographic, The Calas Family Photograph Collection, National Hellenic Museum, https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/. Accessed 11/10/26.