OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Black and white photograph of four men inside a liquor store / bar. There is an empty square wooden table with matching bentwood chairs in the foreground. Behind the table, three men are sitting at the bar on barstools while the fourth, poses behind the bar. All men are facing the camera and quietly smiling. The man furthest to the left is African American. He is clean-shaven, wearing a cap, button down shirt with his sleeves rolled up, and pants with suspenders. The man to his right has dark hair and light skin. He is wearing a white brimmed hat, light colored short sleeve shirt and belted pants. The man to his right is hatless. His hair seems a little lighter, and is fair skinned. He is wearing a light colored shirt, dress pants and dark shoes and socks. He is clean shaven and holding a beer in his left hand and has a pencil tucked behind his right ear. The man behind the bar has fair skin and dark hair and is wearing a light colored button down shirt and a bright smile. The American flag is displayed prominently on the wall behind the bar close to the ceiling.
