OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Black and white photograph of a group of men lined up in three rows. The men in the first row are seated on folding chairs and the next row are standing behind them. The third row of men are standing on folding chairs behind everyone. All of them are wearing dress pants with a white shirt and tie with the exception of the priest, who is standing in the middle of the second row. He is wearing a black suit and white clergy collar. They are posed in front of a simple stage platform or dais with a Greek flag and an American flag flanking them.

ORIGIN

Donated by Coula Papadatos. The picture is of the men's church board in Minneapolis, MN circa 1930's and 1940's.
