OBJECT DESCRIPTION

ORIGIN

Marika Papagika was a popular Greek singer in the early 20th century and one of the first Greek women singers to be heard on sound recording. Marika was one of the first to record Greek music in the USA.

After Papagika passed in 1943, Alma Criolla Records re-released her music in a 19 track compilation dedicated solely to her in 1994.
