OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Black and white photograph. Along the left side of the photograph there is a line of Greek text that is cut off by a white border. At the top of the photograph is the name "Paul Voudouris". Under that name is a picture of a stone stature face profile. Right along side that is another stone face, enlarged and up close. Underneath these picture are the words, "It Takes Two", located at the bottom of the page.

ORIGIN

"It Takes Two" was an album released in 1993 of electronic/pop music, by artist Paul Voudouris.

Paul Voudouris is a Greek-American talented musician, composer, and singer. He often released music with his good friend Chris Spheeris. "It Takes Two" was Voudouris' second album released. Before this album he released, "Enchantment", and after this album, he released two more by the names of, "Nothing But the Truth" and "Emilia's Notebook."
