

| | |
|-----------------|---|
| OBJECT ID | 2013.21.28 |
| OBJECT NAME | Photograph |
| EVENT | First Greek-American WWI pilot |
| MEDIUM | Photo Paper |
| OBJECT ENTITIES | Delligiannis, Elais (is related to) Callas, Louis (is related to) Studio, Hall's (is related to) Studio, Hall's (created by) |
| ACCESS POINTS | aviation fighter pilot lawyer portrait uniform World War I |

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Sepia photograph, potrait of Elias Emanuel Delligiannis (Louis Callas). Elias is wearing his pilot uniform and aviation goggles in the portrait. Portrait is from the shoulders and up. Photograph stored in brown folder with 'Hall's Genry Studio' logo printed of the flap, along with cities of location. Photograph originall attached to folder as evidenced by adhesive marks on the back of the photograph.

ORIGIN

photograph of first Greek-American WWI pilot. One of two men to survive in his squandron. Became U.S. citizen following the war, when he went on to become a lawyer. Eventually continued to work at IRS.

CITATION

Photograph, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 05/10/24.
