

OBJECT ID	F2014.129
OBJECT NAME	Frame, Picture
ACCESS POINTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> bird brown helmet Parthenos Photo photograph sheild snake statue

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

A framed and matted photo of a statue of Athena. In the photo, she is against a brown background. The statue has her wearing a war helmet, holding a bird in her right hand, which is resting on a pillar and her sheild in the other with a snake? leaning up against the shield. On the bottom of the photo there are words- what is ledgable reads "Statutette of Athena Parthenos"

ORIGIN

Original Statue:

Museum Collection: National Archaeological Museum, Athens, Greece

Catalogue Number: Athens NM 129

Title: "Varvakeion Athena Parthenos"

Class: Free-standing statue

Material: Marble

Height: 0.94

Context: Found near Varvakeion

Original / Copy: Reduced opy of the gold and ivory statue of Athena Parthenos by Pheidias c440 BC

Style: High Classical

Date: C2nd - 3rd AD

Period: Roman

CITATION

Frame, Picture, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 12/19/25.