OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Black and white wedding photo, placed on a mirrored backing. In the center of the picture is the married couple and surrounding them are family, friends and member of the clergy, 43 people in all. There is a table to left, set in front of everyone. It is covered with a table cloth and has covered trays on top. There is another table setting just in front of the groom, also covered with a table cloth and has small bunches of flowers on top. On the floor to the right of said table is a larger bouquet of flowers. The image appears to be taken inside someones home. There is a large armoire on the back wall, set behind the group. There is a chandelier coming down from the ceiling, left center and also a mirror on the right wall, reflecting some of the group. On the bottom right corner there is a staped logo of some kind, but it has badly faded and can't be read.
