OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Antique, sepia photograph depicting the storefront for the Pallas Candy Co. The window is decorated with a display consisting of baskets of candy and glass jars filled with candies. In the center of the display is a prop airplane, with a fan like propeller. The plane resembles an old-fashioned airplane, perhaps a tribute to the Wright brothers. On the right side (viewer's left-hand side) there are two people standing next to the display window; one man wearing a white shirt and apron, and a bow-tie, and behind him, standing in a doorway, is a woman wearing a white blouse and long, dark skirt. The photograph is matted in dark brown cardboard.
