OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Black and white photograph of a restaurant. There are four people inside, two people behind a counter on the right and two men on stools on the other side of the counter. Along the left wall, there are tables with white tablecloths and wooden charis, as well as hooks above each table. The men behind the counter are wearing white kitchen shirts with black buttons. There are cups on the tables.

ORIGIN

Item was loaned to the museum in August of 1995, but no Gift Agreement could be found.

Evangelos "Charlie" Angelopoulos is on the far right of the photo. He was the uncle of the donor.
