

OBJECT ID	F2016.162
OBJECT NAME	Photograph
ACCESS POINTS	St. Nicholas Albanian Church

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Color photograph of the inside of St. Nicholas Albanian Church in Chicago. There are red jars at the front of the church. At the front, there is a circular stand that appears to hold candles. There is a man sitting in the pews, which are clearly shown in this picture. There are lights between the stained glass on the left side of the church.

ORIGIN

St. Nicholas Albanian Church was founded in 1944. Their first church building was purchased in 1947. The founders were from the southeastern part of Albania, a city called Korca. They are said to have an icon of Mother Mary that weeps as though by a miracle. Many visitors come to see this icon.

CITATION

Photograph, National Hellenic Museum, https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/. Accessed 11/10/26.