ACCESS POINTS doily

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Oval, beige. Linen embroidered and crocheted. Pink, purple, and red flowers. The center is made of white cloth, with a pink and a red flower at one end and a light purple and a dark purple flower at the other end. Below the flowers is a green fern with three branches, along with two short green lines. Above the flowers is green branches with leaves. The flowers are connected by two green lines on either side. These lines consist of an outside line and an inside line. The outside line curls inward at each end, while the inside line remains relatively straight. In between the two lines, there are light green spots, which could represent leaves. Halfway down the lines, there is a branch with leaves and two dots on either side. The outside of the cloth design is bordered with a lacey design.

ORIGIN

Doilies are usually used for furniture protection, flower arrangement, and food service and etiquette. They are also decoration.
