

|                 |   |
|-----------------|---|
| OBJECT ID       | 1996.17.2   |
| OBJECT NAME     | Tiara   |
| DATE CREATED    | 1929  |
| OBJECT ENTITIES | Eliopoulos, Nicholas (collected by)Eliopoulos, Nicholas (is related to)Pazouras, Konstantina (is related to)Eliopoulos, Christ (is related to)  |
| RELATED ITEMS   | Candle, 1996.17.3Pin, Lapel, 1996.17.4.APin, Lapel, 1996.17.4.BPin, Lapel, 1996.17.4.CPin, Lapel, 1996.17.4.DPin, Lapel, 1996.17.4.EPin, Lapel, 1996.17.4.FPin, Lapel, 1996.17.4.GPin, Lapel, 1996.17.4.HCorsage, 1996.17.4.IPin, Lapel, 1996.17.4.JPin, Lapel, 1996.17.4.K |
| ACCESS POINTS   | flowersPearlsTiaraVeilwedding   |

---

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

This is a tiara made from wire covered in white thread and decorated with strands of white beads and faux flower buds. The tiara grows in height from each end to the center. A faux flower with an accompanying green leaf is attached to both ends. One beaded circle with flower in it has fallen off of the tiara and is attached to the wire base with a long string.

---

ORIGIN

Used in wedding of Konstantina Pazouras & Christ Eliopoulos (parents of donor) in 1929 in Kapsia, Arcadia, Greece. Tiara used with woman's bridal veil. They came to Chicago in early 1930.

---

CITATION

Tiara, 1929, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 04/27/24.

---