OBJECT DESCRIPTION

20 x 20" cotton and polyester cream-colored napkin with jacquard weaving. The designs on the napkin are done in a cream color and a more shiny cream color There is a double border around the outside of the napkin and the square in the middle. Surrounding the square, there are flowers with many petals and vines connecting them. There is also a white thread border around the outside.

ORIGIN

Jacquard weaving made it possible to produce an unlimited variety of patterned weaving. The pattern was based on a piece of paper with holes punched into it.
