

| | |
|-----------------|---|
| OBJECT ID | 1996.18.1 |
| OBJECT NAME | Bedsread |
| DATE CREATED | 1954 |
| MATERIAL | Cotton; Wool |
| OBJECT ENTITIES | Grenus, Helen (collected by) Pappadakis, Anthousa (owned by) |
| RELATED ITEMS | Bedsread, 1996.18.2 Runner, Table, 1996.18.3 |

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Multi-colored handwoven bedspread. The entire blanket is rose red and edged with pointed scallops in a lighter red with sparse embroidered detailing on each scallop that resembles a branch with berries on it. The body of the bedspread has embroidered flowers that form a lush frame of vibrant color around the perimeter of the bedspread. The Greek letters Alpha and Pi are embroidered inside the frame and are embellished with embroidered vines and flowers.

CITATION

Bedsread, 1954, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 05/04/26.