

OBJECT ID	1997.42.4
OBJECT NAME	Rug
DATE CREATED	February 22, 2013
ALTERNATIVE NAME	Flokati
MATERIAL	Wool
OBJECT ENTITIES	Gianopoulos, Tina (collected by) Fourtris, Tina (is related to)
RELATED ITEMS	Glove, 1997.42 Purse, 1997.42.2 Shoe, 1997.42.2.A Shoe, 1997.42.2.B Vest, 1997.42.3.A Vest, 1997.42.3.B Dresser, 1997.42.1
ACCESS POINTS	wool Wooven

OBJECT DESCRIPTION

Flokati rug. A hand-dyed and handwoven shag rug made out of lamb's wool. The rug has been dyed a dark mustard color and decorated with thin stripes of alternating colors including gold, maroon, and yellow. The outside edges of the rug are dyed maroon.

ORIGIN

Donated by Tina Fourtris. A handmade flokati rug.

Flokati rugs originated in the Central, Eastern and Southeastern part of Europe. They were always handmade by weaving wool and then put in the river to fluff them up. They were often made in the mountains of Greece.

CITATION

Rug, February 22, 2013, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 05/07/24.