

□
□ □

Object ID

2003.21.1.2.

Object Name

Bag, Tagari

Date Created

February 25, 2013, mid 20th century

Alternative Name

Tagari

Material

Wool

Access Points

Greek Key handmade
Purse Tagari
wool
Woven

Object Description

Woven wool handbag (tagari). Medium blue background with 2 Grecian vases and Greek key design in off white embroidery with cream, braided, rope strap.

Origin

A tagari purse is a cloth bag. They were made and worn by workers during the 1940's through the 1950's. The bag was worn rurally in Greece and surrounding European areas for practical reasons but are now worn as more of a fashion statement.

Citation

Page 1 of 2

□ Bag, Tagari, February 25, 2013, mid 20th century, National Hellenic Museum, <https://collections.nationalhellenicmuseum.org/Detail/objects/>. Accessed 10/05/22.